

LITTLE LOCALS

PERSONAL MENTION

AND ITEMS INTERESTING TO TOWN AND COUNTY SUBSCRIBERS.

How do you like the result of Tuesday's election?

Our townsman Col. W. P. Morris is confined to room with chills.

Mrs. Calla Findley, of South Camden, is reported being very sick.

On account of the election we issue THE CHRONICLE one day late this week.

J. A. Clement, esq., is acting registrar during the illness of Mr. J. T. Bowles.

Mrs. Ann Lashlee, of Charleston, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Laura Hawley.

Mr. Aaron G. Davis, editor of the Dyersburgh Times, called to see us last Friday.

Mr. J. H. Hudson, of Bristow, was a pleasant caller at THE CHRONICLE office last Monday.

Chancellor Andrew J. Abernathy, of Pulaski, is holding a special term of chancery court at this place this week.

Mrs. E. A. Nance and daughter, Mrs. J. L. Hudson, of Garfield, honored THE CHRONICLE office with a call Monday.

Mr. D. S. Cuff, a prosperous farmer, of the tenth district, has our thanks for a delicious watermelon, the latest of the season.

We are glad to note that our townsman, Mr. J. W. Bateman, has sufficiently recovered from his illness to be able to attend to business.

The Democracy of Carroll County is to be congratulated on its victory. Republicans have carried that county with a sweeping majority for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan and children, and Mrs. Dr. Ed. Napier and children, of Waverly, visited in Camden Saturday and Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rives.

Monday afternoon while sitting in the doorway of her father's residence, near Camden, Miss Florence Farmer fainted and fell out of the door and received painful though not serious injuries.

Mr. David Pafford, living 1 mile east from Camden, lost a fine young horse Friday evening by death. The animal was apparently sound and healthy Friday, and on entering his stable the next morning he was found dead.

Married, Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bridges, 3 miles southwest from Camden, Mr. Caswell Cowell and Miss Victoria Bridges were united in marriage by L. E. Davis, esq. THE CHRONICLE extends congratulations.

The following license to marry have been issued by county clerk W. A. Steele, jr., since the last report made in THE CHRONICLE, to wit: James Williamson and Sarah Presson; Martin D. Blakely and Rosa A. Hudson; Adam Akers and Ella Wheatley; Caswell Cowell and Victoria Bridges.

The bastardy case of the State against Holland, tried before Judge B. C. Scruggs this week, was decided against Holland. The penalty prescribed by law in such cases is that $40 for the first year, $30 for the second, and $20 for the third shall be paid for the support of the child, and bond be given that the father will prevent its becoming a charge on any county of the State.

C. N. Gill, who did a small grocery business on the north side of the square, and who recently got himself in trouble by firing off his pistol, for which he was bound over to the next term of the Benton County circuit court, skipped for unknown parts Sunday night. He left a wife and several children in almost destitute circumstances. His bondsmen, Messrs. L. O. Lashlee and L. N. Wilson, are anxious to learn something of his whereabouts.

FROM BIG SANDY.

Special correspondence.]

The entertainment given at the residence of Mr. V. F. Morris last Friday evening in honor of Mr. W. W. Atchison and Dr. E. M. McAuley, was a brilliant success in every particular. Mrs. Morris is a charming hostess, and did everything to make her friends feel welcome and enjoy the evening at their interesting home.

BIG SANDY, Nov. 3, 1890.

FROM LUTERTON.

Regular correspondence.]

Elder Hursch, of Humphreys County, was mingling with friends at this place last week.

Mrs. Ella Berry has been very sick with fever, but hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Dr. T. R. Luter contemplates a trip to Texas soon with a view to locating at some point in that State.

Mr. Charles Barfield, who left this county last May to make his home at Metropolis, Ill., returned to this place last Wednesday, and says he is satisfied to live in old Benton.

LUTERTON, Nov. 3, 1890.

FROM FAIRVIEW.

Regular correspondence.]

Grant Benton returned home Sunday last from Arkansas.

Miss Tina Pierce has returned to school at McLemoresville.

Miss Mollie Cooper has gone to Henry County to charge of a school.

Send THE CHRONICLE to W. L. Van Huss, Jonesborough, Ark., three months.

Mrs. Sallie Hawley is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Nancy Van Huss, of this place.

Corn gathering is the pressing work with the farmers. 'Possum hunting is the great pastime with the boys.

FAIRVIEW, Nov. 3, 1890.

FROM ENLOE.

Regular correspondence.]

Sheriff Flowers was on the creek last week.

Jack Frost has come and 'possums are ripe.

Gen. S. H. Atkins has completed some new buildings on his farm.

Mr. F. L. Manley, of Henry County, was down on business last week.

Messrs. Aday & Williams, of West Danville, are constructing a supply boat.

The post-office at this place has changed hands, Mr. J. M. Beaton is the present incumbent.

Mr. Charles Daniels, who has been indisposed for some time, has resumed his position as bridge watchman.

Rev. Mr. Sykes, of Stewart County, preached the funeral sermon of Mr. Jesse Murphy at the Herndon school-house Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, of this place, attended the wedding of their daughter, Miss Ella Gilbert, to a gentleman at Paris last week.

ENLOE, November 2, 1890.

FROM MATLOCK'S CHAPEL.

Regular correspondence.]

Messrs. Willis Odle and M. A. Fry, of Coxburgh, visited at this place Sunday.

Messrs. A. G. Nunnery and William Goodman went to Hickman County Friday to secure hands to pick peas.

"Pea-picking" is the order of the day now. Farmers seem more anxious than ever before to get the pea crop on the market.

"I am going to the election tomorrow and vote a straight nominee ticket," is all I can hear from good Democrats. Hurrah for the Democracy!

Rev. R. S. Harrison delivered an interesting sermon at this place Sunday. Mr. Harrison is one of our most promising young men, and the best wishes of a host of friends go with him in his work for the Master.

Died, at this place, October 18, the little child of Mr. and Mrs.

Alex. Lynch. The remains were interred as the Buffalo Cemetery, near Beardstown. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

MATLOCK'S CHAPEL, Nov. 3, '90.

FROM EVA.

Regular correspondence.]

Born, 1 mile north of Eva, to the wife of Ned Summers, a daughter.

Mrs. L. L. Stem visited at Dr. J. B. Dillions Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Hamer is visiting at her daughter's, Mrs. Joe Weatherly, this week.

Farmers in the vicinity of Eva are busy gathering the corn and peanut crops.

Mr. Henry Davis is having some neat buildings erected on his farm 2 miles northwest of this place.

The election went off very quietly at this place, and as usual the result is satisfactory to the Democrats.

Robert Hamer cut his foot very badly with an axe Tuesday, and on the same day one of Mr. B. A. Totty's boys split his foot wide open while chopping wood.

EVA, November 5, 1890.

FROM HOLLADAY.

Regular correspondence.]

Mr. Sam Leslie and family visited friends at Chaseville Sunday.

Miss T. W. Pierce, of Big Sandy, entered school at this place Monday.

Mrs. Kate Leslie is visiting her sister, Mrs. Maud King, at Gardner this week.

Messrs. C. O. and I. R. Hubbs were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fry Sunday.

Miss Dora McCord has returned from Garfield where she has been teaching school.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Atlas Smith, October 29, a daughter; and on October 30th, to Mr. and Mrs. James King, a daughter.

I was mistaken about the game of base ball reported in a former article. The Holladay boys played the Camden club instead of the Cowells' Chapel club.

HOLLADAY, November 4.

FROM WHEATLEY.

Regular correspondence.]

W. D. Wheatley has located at Big Sandy.

Both Sandiford and John Nance are reported very sick with malarial fever.

John H. Collier is erecting some new cottages, which adds to the appearance of Wolf Hollow.

Homar Parker who has been absent for a fortnight or more, came home Sunday somewhat indisposed.

W. S. Parker has sold his river farm to the Robins Brothers. Homar Parker has sold his place to his brother Walter.

Mr. Burrel Wynn is reported to be down with heart dropsy. He is eighty-two years old, and can hardly recover from this attack.

A. N. Lindsey is having some neat cottages erected on his farm near Point Mason, which will be occupied by the Matheny boys.

W. M. McDaniel and Miss Lula Burcham were married at the church Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Humphrey officiating. Also Howard Akers and Miss Mollie Collier were married last week. May they live long and be happy, is the wish of the writer.

Homar Parker and his sister, Miss Callie, happened to a very dangerous, and which came near being a serious accident Sunday afternoon while driving. The horse became frightened at a log in the road and ran away, throwing Mr. Parker and his sister out. Homar escaped unhurt, but Miss Callie received some very painful bruises. The road is a public highway, and the accident was caused by negligence on the part of the road overseer.

WHEATLEY, November 3, 1890.

FROM AREADNE

Regular correspondence.]

Peanut growers in this section have finished pulling up their peas.

J. F. Pierce has accepted a position with Young & Nobles at Paris.

T. N. Garner is receiving material for putting up a new house near his present dwelling.

Mr. J. G. Clement passed through here Sunday in search of a mule that had strayed from home.

Quite a number of Democrats of this place attended the speaking at Big Sandy last Wednesday.

Mrs. Phoebe Phifer, of Humphreys County, has moved to the A. J. Farmer farm on the Tennessee River.

Newt. Redick and Robert Stagner while on trial for disturbing public worship, before justices Lindsey and Pierce, took "leg-bail," and have not been heard of since.

AREADNE, Nov. 3, 1890.

FROM MORRIS CHAPEL.

Regular correspondence.]

Everybody is busy housing the corn and peanut crops.

Miss Minnie Jordan is quite sick from an attack of chills.

Mr. John Bishop is confined to his room with the mumps.

Born, at this place, November 2, to the wife of Rev. M. V. Utley, a son.

Messrs. Cowell & Williams will begin a singing school at this place Sunday.

Messrs. R. M. Stephens and H. C. Utley visited at Hurstburgh last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Jennie Swindle, of Chalk Level, was the guest of Miss Ada Anderson last Sunday.

Mr. Witt French had a fine horse to die last Friday from an attack of the blind-staggers, and Mr. John McGlohn has lost two horses from the ravages of this disease.

MORRIS CHAPEL, Nov. 4, 1890.

FROM FAXON.

Special correspondence.]

Mr. Richard Brewer, of Paris, has located at Faxon.

George Garland has located on the Beasley farm near Faxon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Faxon have just returned from a visit to relatives and friends at Memphis.

Messrs. Lane and and Buckingham, from Stewart County, were the guests of Mrs. Kelley Saturday.

The public school building near R. W. Lindsey's will soon be completed, and then school will open.

Mr. Wilcox, of Clarksville, was in Faxon a few days since to secure a few hands to get out cross-ties.

The nutting party last week were not successful in getting many nuts, but the day was spent very pleasantly.

We regret to learn of the indisposition of Uncle Burrel Wynn, and join a host of friends in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Mr. R. H. Herndon has made up 1,482 gallons of molasses this season, and everybody will have plenty of sorghum and cookies this winter.

Since the steam-shovel has ceased operations at this place, we are not annoyed by the noise of so many trains and the confusion resulting therefrom.

The farmers are busy gathering the crop of corn, and the yield promises to be much larger than estimated. Very little wheat has been sown in the vicinity of Faxon.

Miss Lizzie Faxon gave the young folks an entertainment one evening last week, which was a very enjoyable affair. Everybody had a nice time, as they always do when they are guests of Miss Lizzie.

Mack Spence and Matthew Robbins have been hunting faithfully every night for several weeks, and strange as it may seem, the only game that they have succeeded in bagging was a ground hog, and they had to dig a well to get him.

FAXON, November 3, 1890.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

A grocery clerk puts down an order, then puts it up.—Yonkers Statesman.

When you are at Big Sandy call and see T. B. Cantrell—he has charge of Young & Nobles' establishment. [25-4]

New York has a twilight club. The members go home in the gray of the morning.—New Orleans Picayune

For the latest styles in fall and winter hats for ladies, misses, and children go to Mrs. Fanny Thompson. [2-1-4]

Happiness is a good deal like butter in one respect—it goes further when it is spread on thin.—Binghampton Leader.

Nellie Bly got around the world pretty lively, but Cheatham's Tasteless Chill Tonic will go it at a still better pace. Try a bottle when in need of a remedy for chills. Sold by Mannon & Herrin.

Some people who are sure that they could never tell a lie have never had an adequate temptation.—Somerville Journal.

Say, friend! stop taking so many pills and try Liquid Cathartic Compound. Never affiliates with the system. Sold by Mannon & Herrin. [10-1-4]

No wonder hearts are so often wounded they are subject to so much beating.—Binghampton Republican.

Anything from a harvesting machine to a dose of pills can be had at Young & Nobles', Big Sandy. [25-4]

It is the easiest thing in the world for a woman to feel religious when she has good clothes.—Atchison Globe.

Mrs. Fanny Thompson has just received a new line of Nellie Bly caps and other late fashions in ladies' and misses' hats.

A bald-headed man never quite loses hope—that somebody will get up a successful hair restorative.—Ram's Horn.

The eighth wonder of the world just discovered—Cheatham's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It will prove a boon to humanity. It is the same tonic as that heretofore sold under the same name except that it is tasteless. Guaranteed to cure. For sale by Mannon & Herrin. 2-3-4

A fellow who had cramps found fault with his physician because the latter didn't take pains.—Binghampton Leader.

Come! come to the new drug store—Mannon & Herrin—and get a bottle of The New South for colic, diarrhoea, griping, etc. [10-1-4]

"Send this car to the repair shop," ordered the inspector. "Yes, sir. What is wrong?" "I notice that two of the windows open easily. Have them attended to."—New York Sun.

Young & Nobles have just added a complete line of drugs to their business at Big Sandy. [25-4]

Host—"Great scott! There are thirteen at the table!" Guest—"Surely you're not so superstitious as all that?" Host—"No, but there's only food enough for twelve!"—Boston Traveller.

The malarious summer will soon be here. Buy a bottle of Cheatham's Tasteless Chill Tonic and fortify yourself against chills and fever. It is absolutely guaranteed to cure and pleasant to take. Sold by Mannon & Herrin.

Husband—"I see that a woman is about to apply for a seat in the New York Stock Exchange." Wife—"Why don't some of the men get up and give her a seat?"—Lowell Citizen.

I told you the new drug store would keep all the first-class remedies—Liquid Cathartic Compound for the liver and New South for summer complaint. [1-4]

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Hardware, Drugs, and Family Groceries—Thanking our friends for past patronage, and soliciting a continuance of the same, we announce that we are prepared to serve you with first-class goods in the above lines.

YOUNG & NOBLES, Big Sandy, Tenn.

Why scratch your life away when a little bottle of Hunt's cure judiciously applied will cure the worst case of itch ever known? If not it costs you nothing. Price 50 cents. Sold by Mannon & Herrin. [2-3-4]

THREE IN ONE!—Young & Nobles, Big Sandy, carry complete lines of hardware, family groceries, and drugs—Complete means they have anything in the above lines the public wants. Call and see. Mr. T. B. Cantrell occupies a place behind their counters, and will be pleased to see you. [25-4]